President's Post

Margaret Ann Randolph

Hope you all had a wonderful summer!

On Sunday, October 13, at 3:00 p.m., we will experience the music of the Chattanooga Flute Choir at Christ Church Episcopal. This creative ensemble is led by Nora Kile. Bring friends and family, pick up your yearbook!

Our Holiday Spectacular will be Tuesday, Nov. 19, at 7:00 p.m. at Memorial Auditorium! Our featured organist is Patrick Scott from Memphis. The UTC Singers and the UTC Instrumental Ensemble, both directed by Dr. Kevin Ford, are certain to put us in the Holiday Spirit. Bring guests to this festive occasion! The CMC will highlight and honor D. Glenn Draper's many contributions to the musical life of Chattanooga and the lives he touched throughout the years as he led his many choirs through magnificent choral productions here and abroad.

In September, CMC members enjoyed pleasant weather, delicious BBQ, and a delightful music program (with a taste of Appalachia) at the Heritage House.

In June, close to July 4th, we had our Patriotic Program at Memorial. The organist stayed right with the hilarious silent movie! He also played some pieces by Lemare, one of the first to play this organ.

Our faithful Telephone Chair, Frances Parris, died suddenly in a car wreck this summer. At the age of 95, she did an amazing job of taking good care of us all. Those who replaced her said "we did not know how much she did!"

Looking forward to seeing all soon!

Remembrances

Dr. Glenn Wright Draper (1928 - 2019)

- Beloved husband, father, and UTC choral director who contributed so much to the lives of all he touched. His contributions to music have spread throughout the world.

Frances Millikan Parris (1924 - 2019)

- Dedicated member of the CMC, chair of the Calling Committee, and choir vocalist at First Cumberland Presbyterian Church. She always looked for ways to improve and gladly shared her wonderful ideas.
